

GEOGRAPHY KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

Learning about places and the people who live there.

Key Vocabulary

country
county
city
town
village

physical feature

countryside
hill
beck / ford / river

human feature

residential motorway
railway

Key Facts

Bradford is a city in the county of Yorkshire.

Bradford is surrounded by hills.

Physical features of our city are an underground beck, hills which surround it and the river air to the north of the city.

Human features of our city are 2 railways stations, a large city centre, busy residential areas and roads which connect them.

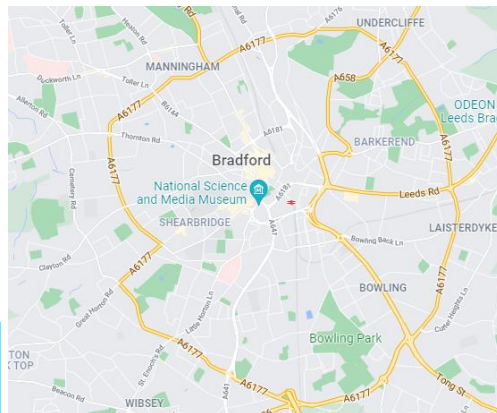

Lesson by Lesson

1. What are the countries of the United Kingdom and their capital cities and where are they in relation to Bradford?
2. What are the physical features of Bradford that naturally helped it to become a great city?
3. What are the human features of Bradford that were built to increase its importance?

When was Bradford the greatest city?

A map of Bradford within the United Kingdom.

A map of Bradford, run your finger around the ring road. Where is our school, is it in the north, east, south or west of the city?

The River Air - a physical feature

Bradford City Hall – a human feature